

COMMUNITY CARE LICENSING RIGHTS

This is to inform you that Community Care Licensing is the governing body of preschools in the State of California. All schools are subject to the regulations of Title XXII. The Community Care Licensing staff has the right to interview children and staff and to inspect and audit children and facility records without prior consent.

I have read the above statement.

---

Parent Signature

---

Date